Ain't no big deal to lose
I keep telling myself
I get used to the blues
I won't stay on the shelf
I'll find somebody else

They say that love is sweeter
The second time around
But I'm way past that number somehow
You'd think that even a fool like me
Could have found true love in my life

Ain't no trick to make love come to you
No matter what the people say
Ain't no trick to make love come to you
But it takes magic to make it stay

It's just a part of the game
I keep telling myself
Hard luck found out my name
I let my bridges burn
But I'll just live and learn

They say that love is sweeter
The second time around
But I'm way past that number somehow
You'd think that even a fool like me
Could have found true love somehow

Ain't no trick to make love come to you
No matter what the people say
Ain't no trick to make love come to you
But it takes magic to make it stay

Ain't no trick to make love come to you
No matter what the people say
