I love you, I hate you
Forget you, but I'm afraid to
You loved me, or did you
I'll never be sure

But one things for certain
In spite of this hurting
I'll always be hopelessly yours

From laughing to crying
From living to dying
From heaven, to a heartache
I know I can't cure

But one things for certain
In spite of this hurting
I'll always be hopelessly yours

I cry on the slightest of notions
'Cause I'm just going through the emotions

I love you, I hate you
Forget you, but I'm afraid to
You loved me, or did you
I'll never be sure

But one things for certain
In spite of this hurting
I'll always be hopelessly yours
I'll always be hopelessly yours
