She rolls like a river
She bathes in the sand
She's ice for a woman
She's fire for a man

She'll beat you at poker
She'll cheat you at dice
She's got an ace up her sleeve
She makes you believe when
She's in love she'll sacrifice.

She's hard as a diamond
She's soft as a breeze
You think she's an altar
You get down on your knees

She'll beat you at poker
She'll cheat you at dice
She's got an ace up her sleeve
She make you believe when
She's in love she'll sacrifice.

She'll pull on your robe
She'll make your bell ring
She'll teach you about sharks
They don't feel a thing

She'll beat you at poker
She'll cheat you at dice
She's got an ace up her sleeve
She make you believe when
She's in love she'll sacrifice.
Sacrifice girl!
