The girls in Paris are special and unique
You see it in their eyes when they walk down the street

They sing a song my poor heart never can forget
This night I wish that I was still in Paris yet
Hear 'em singin'
(la la la la la li la la la li...)

The girls in Paris wear a sunshine on their face
They smile a Paris smile you'll find no other place

They sing a song...

The girls in Paris fall in love just once a week
And love is all they know and love is all they speak

They sing a song...
They keep singin' (la la la la la li la la la li...)
