He's staring down the barrel
Of another desperate day
Pulls on his boots
He can't walk away
He's running on empty
He's knocked about and bent
But he'll still be standing
When the river runs again
Chorus
Is the spirit in the rock?
Or pass the hat around
Is it freedom on the Wallaby?
Or a dusty patch of ground
Is it waltzing Matilda?
Or a hand upon your shoulder
Is this, the spirit of the bush?
(Adam)
She stares at empty cupboards
Just like the day before
It's been so long
She can't take it anymore
(Adam, Lee on harmony)
But she digs a little deeper
And somehow finds the strength
(Lee) She keeps believing
There will be better days ahead Chorus
Is the spirit in the rock?
Or pass the hat around
Is it freedom on the Wallaby?
Or a dusty patch of ground
Is it waltzing Matilda?
Or a hand upon your shoulder
Is this, the spirit of the bush?
Fiddle bridge
Narration
(Lee) Was it there when young Ned Kelly
Stood up for those oppressed
(Adam) Or when the brave young ANZACS
Put their courage to the test
(Steve) Or is it out there with the battler
When he gives it one last try

(Lee) Through the darkest moments
You see the spirit shine
Chorus
Repeat Chorus
Fiddle bridge, end
