

Lee Kernaghan "Three Chain Road"

Visit "Three Chain Road" on MotoLyrics.com

Billy was a drover
He lived out on the three chain road
Fell in love with Mary and they married
She made his shack a home
He drove them off to Queensland
And it hurt to have to leave her on her own
But she promised she'd be waiting
When he brought the cattle home
There's a lonesome wind blowing down
The three chain road tonight
Its sending out a warning as she blows
Billy don't go riding down
The three chain road tonight
The wind is crying Billy please don't go
Billy came home early
He wasn't due for many days
Walked into the cabin and found his Mary
In a strangers arms she lay
In the blindness of his anger
The fatal shots rang out from Billys gun
In that smoky silence he knew
And he wept for what he'd done
There's a lonesome wind blowing down
The three chain road tonight
Its sending out a warning as she blows
Billy don't go riding down
The three chain road tonight
The wind is crying Billy please don't go
Billy walked out slowly
He knew what must be done
Somewhere in the darkness a shot rang out
Billys time had come
They say his spirits out there
You can feel it every time the cold wind blows
Its warding off the strangers
Who come by the three chain road
There's a lonesome wind blowing down
The three chain road tonight
Its sending out a warning as she blows
Billy don't go riding down
The three chain road tonight
There's a lonesome wind blowing down

The three chain road tonight
Its sending out a warning as she blows
Billy don't go riding down
The three chain road tonight
The wind is crying Billy please don't go

Visit Lee Kernaghan page on MotoLyrics.com, to get more lyrics and videos.

MotoLyrics.com | Lyrics, music videos, artist biographies, releases and more.