I've been trying to figure out
What the fight is all about
Tired of playing
Like we're in love again

I guess we should've thought it out
'Cause now there's way too many doubts
Can't be going
Through this again , no, no, no, no

I can't imagine
What I've done for you
To make me feel this way
Baby, I don't understand

Ain't nobody keeping score
And it ain't about right or wrong
Who cares if you win
The argument

So I'm dropping out of love
I didn't sign up for this pain
So I'm out of love
I can't take feeling this way

Dropping out of love
Think it's best you go your way
'Cause I've had enough
Of this hurting, baby

Lately you've been bugging out
All types of madness out your mouth
You think it's funny
Well sweetie, think again

I wanna see how hard you laugh
You turn around and I'm not there
No apologies
No baby, please, not again

I can't imagine
What I've done for you

To make me feel this way
Baby, I don't understand

And it ain't about right or wrong
Who cares if you win
The argument

So I'm dropping out of love
I didn't sign up for this pain
So I'm out of love

Dropping out of love
Think it's best you go your way
'Cause I've had enough

Tired of waking up
To lonely tears again
If you don't see a problem
Then how can you make it end

You don't really give a damn
So where is this we're going
Goodbye
Baby, goodbye

I'm dropping out of love
So I'm out of love

Dropping out of love

I'm dropping out of love
So I'm out of love

Dropping out of love
