Well it's not about them Its all about us Can you hear it again And just take on trust Yeah you still got a way To get out of this One story town

So you swallow your pride Whe you're fillin' with gas And there laughin inside about you kicking your arse And you gotta stand up, if you don't Then there just falling down

So why don't you Turn your car around Forget your way back home Cause it's not me there anymore Turn you car around We're better off alone I'll get myself up off the floor So i'll tell you itsblack But you know that it's white I say everythings cool and You don't have to fight And there's nothing outside In the dark there Just waiting for you And i wish it was true.
