Even heroes fall down
And mountains won't last forever
But Your promise never fails

When the ocean is raging
I find stillness in Your presence
And I lift my voice to say
'Jesus take me away!

[CHORUS]
Carry me on your back
Through the storm, Lord!
Carry me on your back
Through the storm, Lord! '

When the furnace is burning
I know rescue is coming
Your promise never fails

In the darkness Your light shines
Breaking over the horizon
And I lift my eyes to see
Heaven's fighting for me

[CHORUS]
'Carry me on your back
Through the storm, Lord!
Carry me on your back
Through the storm, Lord! '

Waking up in the arms of love
I'll be singing, singing a new song
Waking up in the arms of love
I'll be singing, singing a new song

Carry me on your back
Through the storm, Lord!
Carry me on your back
Through the storm, Lord!
