Sweet Comunion by Leeland
I can feel your presence all around me
And like the rain it washes all of my guilty stains
Father, draw me in, into your arms again

Now is the time for sweet communion
The time for visitation
The time for sweet communion
With the lord

We are welcomed into the holy of holies
Where grace like a river washes away our pride
Father, draw me in, into your arms again

For now is the time for sweet communion
The time for visitation
The time for sweet communion
With the lord

Let our hearts be made as lovers
Where nothing can separate
The veil that stood between us
Was torn by your sacrifice
You're the groom and we're your bride

Now is the time for sweet communion
The time for visitation
The time for sweet communion
With the lord

With the lord
With the lord (sweet communion)
With the lord (with the lord)
With the lord (sweet communion)
