Walking if you walking

This house I'm not leaving

kiss you like I do

In bed does she scream your name

when you were sick & in pain

in a hospital bed

who would bathe you and feed you baby

So now you have money & fame

Everyone's calling your name

But don't you forget

It was just you and me

In a tenement yard pon one single bed

Talk if yuh talking

Or

Walk if yuh walking

This house I'm not leaving

Baby I'm not joking

Talk if yuh talking

Walk if yuh walking

Sort out di someting

I'm taking my share

Vs2.

I'm not gonna argue

Not gonna fight you

Not gonna call you names

Say what you want to

Cuss if you have to

Boy you should be ashamed

She reigning on my parade

But what goes around

Come right back around
You'll both get what you deserve
