The first glance that you gave me
You said, "now come and save me"
Upon my TV screen

Your smile filled my lifeline
The first time in a lifetime
I watched the full cut scene

Now you're gone
Hope still burns inside me
Your words still there to guide me
Memory still lingers on

You are my pixel girl
Searched for you around the world
Somehow you connect to me
Wishing you were next to me
You are my pixel girl
Something something in this world
In my mind there's no restart
Quit playing games with my heart

I'll free you from your capture
From Mushroom Land to Rapture
Just to see your face

'Cause every night I'm wonderin'
Are you stuck in this dungeon
In some far off place

Still you're gone
Been building up my powers
Just sitting here for hours
Feeling like I'm just a pawn

You are my pixel girl
Searched for you around the world
Somehow you connect to me
Wishing you were next to me
You are my pixel girl
Something something in this world
In my mind there's no restart

Quit playing games with my heart

You're so coy
Somehow I know I'll find you
Don't let the darkness bind you
I'll be your virtual boy

Pixel girl
Searched for you around the world
Somehow you connect to me
Wishing you were next to me
You are my pixel girl
Something something in this world
In my mind there's no restart
Quit playing games with my heart

You are my pixel girl
Searched for you around the world
Somehow you connect to me
Wishing you were next to me
You are my pixel girl
Something something in this world
In my mind there's no restart
Quit playing games with my heart
