this is the end of livin'
are all my sins forgiven what is my destination when I'm dead
nothing can last for ever not here on mortal level there's still so much unspoken and time is short indeed cross the infernal fire and through the hall of liars this shure ain't just illusions I'm condemned
I see a new horizon
I see a sun that's rising
I leave my bed of sorrow I reach the astral skies
the sign of time is to die
so I climb up the mountain of dreams

I am led by my soul to the free
time - it's time to die
die - the sign of time
there is no resurection and no resuscitation my time among the living is no more all things can last forever on this eternal level the things I never told you it doesn't matter now
