when will this nightmare end
this horrifying dream of this I wish no more I can't take it any more what is it that I have create there's only evil in this place

help me out of here
and ease the pain
break the chain

voices from somewhere
but there's no one here and that codelike sound it's louder than before

I've heard that signal once before

I think it's crying: save our souls

and ease the pain

stop talking in my head let me search in peace
let me find the way
the way out from this sleep

I hold the key but where's the door out of this twisted psychic war

and ease the pain
