

Lefay "Tequila"

Visit "Tequila" on MotoLyrics.com

the day after the night before
remember nothing
as I face the floor
a pounding headache
a smell of death
I guess it must be my own breath

remember girls
and plenty of booze
and my tequila desire

striptease
the metal police
then I remember nothing more
because I was
passed out on tequila - blackout

rise and shine, a stupid puke oh, shit I'm freezing and oh god I'm nude

I, ve been arrested that's for shure else I wouldn't face
this goddamn floor

and plenty of booze

the metal police
because I was
