"The Quest For Reality"

Visit "The Quest For Reality" on MotoLyrics.com

there I see right in front of me the soul of truth and the shadow of a child

I approach with the speed of dreams I gaze into the entities of me

the shadow is my destiny
the spirit holds the truth of time and all the things to come let the quest for reality begin from here there ain't no giving in the massive sign of darkness glowing on the bloodred sky trying to disorient my mind I have to focus on my search I close my senses as I build a wall against the lies

let the quest for reality begin

the unity of three is rising answering the call following the signal from the void
