there are portals connected between dimensions and through time I should know though I'm caught here I know what dreams are made of here it start and here it ends this is where the time bends everything in reality begins here in this insanity somehow I sense the decay of a billion worlds

it's so unreal
still I know
what this plase of dreams forbode darkness fed by the tears of pain seeking worlds to rape and slay and a thousand years away I hear a codelike constant pray I see dreams I've dreamt before in this rapid mindwarp help me out - I can take no more lord have mercy on my soul

what this plase of dreams forbode
what for I say
what for I moan
here I am so alone

I see a child with a gun in his hand I see a man with a palm full of sand they're the same but with different shapes they are me - I'm the one they await we are one and I am them all I'm a dreaming eternal soul behind the door to creation I hold the key to salvation

what this place of dreams forbode
here I am so alone

here I am in neverland
why - I can not understand
