Give me tonight and this airtight room
And see me watching you
I'll keep you faith in sight
And I'll leave me fear behind

Everything that I believe is standing right in front of me lay down stay
By my side

Take all this time and these broken wings Show me you brand new
And I'll keep you hope alive
And I'll leave my past to the fire

Everything that I believe is standing right in front of me
lay down stay
By my side
All the things that I could say wouldn't matter anyway you're here stay
By my side

You're the only reason I breath in So stay with me
