I was walking the street
With my mind in my feet
And with no sense of time
She was lying in bed
And the things in her head
I couldn't tell you about

Queen of paradise
Yeah, she opened up my eyes
All the colors of the night
And the warmth of her delight
Queen of paradise
Queen of paradise
Queen of paradise

It was the city of sin
And the lights were all dim
Except the smile on her face
When she opened the door
And I slid 'cross the floor
I felt the power and the grace

Queen of paradise
Yes she opened up my eyes
All the colors of the night
And the warmth of her delight
Queen of paradise
Queen of paradise
Queen of paradise

Queen of paradise
Yes she opened up my eyes
All the colors of the night
And the warmth of her delight
(Repeat 3X)
