It's an age-old story
Goes back to Adam and to Eve
Oooh I know
You know
What I want for
And if it ain't clear to you baby
Don't stop lets rock
Give it to me baby

Chorus:
Gimme gimme
Gimme some gimme some
Ain't like you don't want none
Yeah yeah yeah yeah yeah
Whatcha gonna do
Gimme gimme gimme some Gimme some
Don't fight what you can't son
Yeah yeah yeah yeah yeah
Whatcha gonna do

You know you can't ignore it (say my name say my name)
I'm always there in your dreams (you know you want me)
Ooooh you know and I know
What you want for (yeah baby)
And if it ain't clear to you baby
Don't stop lets rock
Ohhhhhhh.....

Chorus

Chorus

Four letter words and three wishes is what I came for Lovebirds blowin' kisses in picture frame form
With just a fraction of this major attraction comin' soon
I bust and implode gimme gimme room
I keep it blazin' it's so amazin'
The occasion that I am raisin'

Massive body invasion
So what you savin' all that love for Open up your mind explore and make it hardcore (do you like candy)
I'll be your candy store
Give you just a little more than what you bargain for (uh)
And if you ask me for some guidance
It's not a minus
I'll break it down to a science
Kitchen appliance
69 gimme mine I'll be your valentine
365 days I want my sun to shine
See I been waitin' for the planets to realign
Total eclipse on my lips
Until the end of time
