I'm trying, I'm dying to fight my way to Friday night Can't take it, I won't make it I'm highschool sux and life's a drag...
And time stands still and it's unacceptable to fail

I cheated i'm a cheater it's wrong and I admit it
I cheated I beat it it's wrong, but I can't quit it now

Retrieving, receiving a little help from one who knows My conscious, retreating and wasted thoughts it seems okay
But time stand still and it's unacceptable to fail
I cheated i'm a cheater it's wrong and I admit it
I cheated I beat it it's wrong, but I can't quit it now

Six years since my days of being underrated and denied
All my twisted ways of thinking made my past life justified Morals faded feeling hated I never thought it would be this way
Fall apart more everyday, but in the end we're all okay
