Woke up late again today
And now the clouds are dark and grey
I've always loved the rain.
Well there's only so much that I can do
To keep away the broken thoughts of you
But i'll be okay.
I'll just lock the doors and unplug the phone
And step back into my comfort zone
Where I know now that i'll be okay.
But then there's days like (days like)
Days like these (Days like these)
Days like these
Make me wish that i'd just let it fly.
Well everything still looks the same
There's no-one left for me to blame

I'll face another day.
But there's only so much that they can say
To make me wanna keep the pain away
Well it's all up to me.
Now i'm back on my feet with open eyes
And i've taken the time to realise
That it's all up to me.
But then there's days like (days like)
Days like these (days like these)
Days like these
Make me wish that you were still by my side.
Days like (days like)
Days like these (days like these)
Days like (days like)
Days like these (days like these)
Days like these...
