Wake up and go on a windy road.
City limits lights will slowly go away.
As the seasons change the people rearrange in your head.
The further I get, I still can't understand.
I don't want to grow up.
I away. have patience now and we can't slow down like the day they saved it's on.

Is there something? goodbye.
I only hope I don't say goodbye.
Will you keep these memories down, I'm trying to sleep.
Cross the county line...bicho's smoking kine...15 hours away.
7 states to go...no one's at the show...how long until our day?
