Darling, give me a moment to comprehend the settling of silence when you turned away from me to wipe your eyes dry darling, what made you separate you from me on this day was it the burden of a broken heart was it the words "i love you"?

and i'm crashing down i need you staring through this sky i fly alone i'm crashing down i need you this ocean separates our song

this city's cold at night i sleep alone

of silence in our conversation when i said i loved you
you from me on that day was it the burden of my broken heart?
