This let down comes as no surprise you're so committed to my demise and i try hard not to fall in line
'cause we're breaking our hearts now it's so separated i feel so pathetic so i'll write these lines down just for you so shout it out full force if you mean it scream it twice to make me believe it we've got this crowd worked up and they've gotta gotta know i'm surely done for

and they've gotta gotta know it's just the beginning your agendas hide behind those eyes the ones that see through my disguise so i'll try hard not to think of you

'cause we're breaking our hearts now
