I could have sworn it was easy to speak to you i follow your hips to the dance floor so i go too intimidation breaks me down now can't make my move your style is kickin my ass now i can't say a word right now my courage is down the drain whoa it buries me so far down it's killing me this frustration i swear i'm hell bent to bring you down

you always said it was easy to play the tease your lips burn red like the fire that light up your eyes your kiss is cocaine i'm addicted and i want more your lips burn red with desire
