I got some time
I guess I'll just settle on in for the ride
Clearin' my mind
Reachin' out through the inside

Haulin' into a new town
Just another stop along the way
Later on when the sun goes down
It's time for us to play

Tires singin' between white lines
Now I know it won't be long
Moment by moment, they're passin' us time
Just another highway song

So many miles away
From the one I need the most
Beyond any words I can say
So far and yet so close

Trading scenes outside the windows
Glimpses into other lives
Where we're headed, I just don't know
I'm just watchin' the world go by

Tires singin' between white lines
Now I know it won't be long
Moment by moment, they're passin' us time
Just another highway song

New emotions inside my mind
Left me wond'ring where to turn
Always lookin' for a sign
Crossin' rivers while bridges burn

Tires singin' between white lines
Now I know it won't be long
Moment by moment, they're passin' us time
Just another highway song

I got some time
I guess I'll just settle on in for the ride

Clearin' my mind
Reachin' out through the inside

Just another highway
Just another highway
Just another highway
Just another highway

Just another highway
Just another highway
Just another highway
Just another highway
Yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah
