I could tell you something
But you'd never keep it to yourself
Never shut your mouth and
One day it's gonna get you in the end

Shouldn't have told you
Wish I didn't know you
Want to make you just fade away
Frustrated, so you threw it all away

Everything
Yeah, you threw it all away
Everything

Yes, you love it when you're sitting on the edge
Tugging on the rope watching everybody spin
Soon enough I know you're gonna wind up mixed up in it

Shouldn't have told you
Wish I didn't know you
But you love to see me in pain
Frustrated, so you threw it all away

Everything
Yeah, you threw it all away
Everything

Now you started over with nothing
Everything
You threw it all away
Everything
Everything

Spinning in circles till you find another crowd
Spinning in circles

I could tell you something
But you'd never keep it to yourself
Never shut your mouth and
One day you'll throw it all away

Everything
You threw it all away
Everything

Now you started over with nothing
Everything
Everything away
