Visit "Ill Fated" on MotoLyrics.com anything that you wanted anything at all well I would have given to you now that your gone I take it all away and you can't find the truth and now your drowning

i would of made you strong
And i wouldn't let you fall
And i want to turn you on again everything that you wanted everything that you got i have given to you now that your gone i want it back again and you don't feel the same and i take the blame

i would of made you strong
you don't feel a thing anymore it's all gone wrong i still taste the blame today you won't let me
