Another superstar set in place
And for a year they shove him in your face
Then he's burned out on a tabloid cover
Strung up and left for dead

Nothing left, nothing left, nothing left of him now
He's useless
Of him now

He started out an underground sensation
Androgynous a king or the queen
Looks the best when he's near starvation
Someday they'll fix his teeth

He's useless
Take all the pictures back down, useless
And they'll use him till there's nothing left now

See him falling down through the charts
He's falling faster, falling farther
Can't find his way through the plagiarizing assholes
They stole his art and repossessed his car
