All along put the blame on you
Devil in the mirror, don't know who I am
Hardened by time a little less than you
Detrimental fear you were once to me

Just the one now it's split in two
Tell me don't you feel it
Are you wounded too
Wonder are you wounded too?

Thinking about all that was said
I went mad and burned you out
Hardened by time a little less than you
And now I finally see it

Just the one, now it's split in two
Tell me, don't you see it?
And all along all I wanted was you
Tell me, don't you feel it?

Was the one that I wanted in you
Tell me, don't you feel it?
All along all I wanted was you

Wonder are you wounded too?
Hardened by time a little less than you
Wonder are you wounded too?
