I've never seen that look in your eyes before I've never seen that smile on your lips before I guess I never knew what true love could do but love sure looks good on you I can tell he's been more than good to you he's done more than I ever hoped to do He's given you the look that I wanted to and love sure looks good on you
I thought I had loved you but I see I was wrong
And now I know that in his arms is where you belong It's been a long long time since I've seen you and I miss you more than I meant to So I guess I'd better go before I let it show

One more thing love sure looks good on you Love sure looks good on you
