Baby, baby, if it ever rains on you
Baby, I'm a talkin' about the blues for you
You get soaked to the skin
And your cheatin' heart would cry within
Boo, boo, boo, whoo

Baby, baby, if there ever comes a day
You wind up with a broken heart on a dark rainy day
It's only then you'll see just what you've really done to me
You know when it rains the blues on you

You've never a had the blues
And you're way overdue
You've been lucky so far
You better thank your lucky stars

For baby, baby, if it ever rains on you
Baby, I'm a talkin' about the blues for you
You get soaked to the skin
And your cheatin' heart would cry within
When it rains the blues, the blues on you

You've never a had the blues
And you're way overdue
You've been lucky so far
You better thank your lucky stars

Baby, baby, if there ever comes a day
You wind up with a broken heart on a dark rainy day
It's only then you'll see just what you've really done to
me
You know when it rains the blues on you
Yes, you know when it rains the blues on you
