a liar once said "we're innocent til proven guilty" - but the the truth is absurd we're poor until proven rich and the scales of justice are fixed by lying pigs plot of human terror unfolds behind the prison door to cage all the minorities, the immigrants and poor next they'll hunt the handicapped, disabled blind and deaf and what will all these piggies do HA! when theres no one left swat police in riot gear, are bombin us tonight an all our civil liberties will die by morning's light while crooked politicians lie and rig the ballot book we whitewash fake democracy and paint another coat we'll keep you here to stay; you'll never get away your property aint mine, until your dying day we'll crush your soul inside; there is no easy ride the hotel's never free and the rooms are always occupied nice of you to join us welcome to the prison age financial quest for new frontiere to build a bigger cage surplus populations growing all around the world capital invests quick to cage these boys and girls we'll burn/bomb the police state, assassinate the magistrate we'll go to every town an burn them fuckin prisons down
we'll keep you here to stay; you'll never get away your property and mine, until your dying day the court pretenders fake, the judge is on the take an if u wanna find a cop you're gonna have to drag the lake capitalism creats such a division between the rich and the poor that this surplus population is creating... fuckin pigs, fuckin pigs, we're against the fuckin pigs, stab them with some dirty rigs, bury them under dirt and twigs, gotta hate that gang of fuckin pigs.
