Pick a place of beauty, pick a place of light
Cover it in shrapnel, burn it through the night
Hide your secret weapon in the place without a fear Death lies in the shadows, murder stands so near

You say you have a mission, that god is in your song
The awful deeds you perpetrate, have never been so
wrong
To scar the dream of paradise, an Eden for us all
Destruction of tranquility, so innocent they fall
Eden Massacre

This island in the sunlight, a place of perfect peace
It's people & it's magic, destroyed as you unleashed
Your terror gift of evil, a serpent from your hate
A massacre in Eden, an unforgiving fate

The awful deeds you perpetrate, have never been so
wrong
To scar the dream of paradise, an Eden for us all
Destruction of tranquility, so innocent they fall
Eden Massacre
