This world is changing and we're all just a part of the plan we've Over stayed our welcome.
When we look outside our windows at night we face a constant fear that The end is near.
So many things that are laid at our feet, abuse and abuse and no
Second guessing what we do with the time That has been given to us. We kill and we steal for the simple need For pleasure.
We kill and we steal for pleasure.
Nationwide terror has struck, the smell of death is a stench you Better get familiar with.
Where will you run? Where will you hide?
The barrel of a smoking gun litters the ground of countless lives
I see the way that we treat each other, we lost all sense of humanity
We are doomed
We are apart of this world
We are apart of this world
There are no more second chances, we have to face the coming ending
There are no more second chances, the world is changing, the end is near.
