Your promises were never kept, back to the start.
Your falling down all that you wanted, was never there back the end

Pushing your way through everything, never backing up, never giving
In, you fake mother fucker I'll call you out.

It's not worth. it's not worth my time.
It's not worth, it's not worth my time.

I'll do my best, I'll do my best when inside
Never inside, never inside all alone.

When insight, when insight you begin to bleed. Not giving in.

This is your way through me, your retribution
I'll see your face in hell you'll pray to me.

When insight, when insight you begin to bleed. Not giving in.

Not giving in.
