Dreaming in the daylight, I'm walking in a trance
I'm living in your nightmare, I haven't got a chance
Living in your nightmare

You feed upon my being, you squeeze my lungs of air
I'm living in your nightmare & you don't really care
You take things I offer, you steal the things I don't
You smile with eyes of evil & taunt me when I choke
Living in your nightmare

I catch you in the shadows, I feel you in the night
You strip me of sensation, you take away my light
Dreaming in the daylight, I'm walking in a trance
I'm living in your nightmare, I haven't got a chance
Living in your nightmare
