

Lefty Frizzell

"Numbers"

Visit "Numbers" on MotoLyrics.com

When the ball drops and means everything, they want to take everything from You.
When your back is pressed up against the wall they still will take Everything from you.
I'm still waiting here with my head barely above water,
just waiting
For my time to be on top of what were owed.
This industry is corrupt and we're barely holding on, so
why are we here?
Everyday we play into the bigger picture, without ever
finding breaks.
There's a reason why we're always losing sleep, there's a reason why we Cannot find our peace.
We are here to show all you that there's a future in never finding Solitude.

I patiently wait, I patiently wait for our break
We love this life, We love this life
This industry is corrupt and we're barely holding on, so
why are we here?
Everyday we play into the bigger picture, without ever
finding breaks.
There's a reason why we're always losing sleep, there's a reason why
We cannot find our peace.
We are here to show all you that there's a future in never finding Solitude.

You're just a walking contradiction,
We do it for the love, never for the fucking greed.

Visit Lefty Frizzell page on MotoLyrics.com, to get more lyrics and videos.