"Take A Man"

Take a man, take a man who thinks he is an icon Watch him sweat, watch him sweat when he sees that it's all gone
Money comes & money goes, planet earth is in it's throes
Take a man, take a man right now

Is it just a dream? Is it all it seems?
Is it just a dream? Will I wake up?

Watch it burn, watch it burn as people fight the hunger
Steal the light, steal the light of hope that is no longer Crying game & feeling shame, feed the rich & kick the lame
Watch it burn, watch it burn right now

Is it just a dream? Is it all it seems?
Is it just a dream? Will I wake up?
