The waltz of the Angels I hear each night
I hold you tightly in these arms of mine
It's surely from heaven this music I hear
When your lips say I love you in waltz time my dear.

Chorus:

There must be a higher world, much higher than ours
A writer of love songs way up in the sky
The maker of roses, of love sweet and true
And the waltz of the Angels the moonlight and you.

--- Instrumental ---

There must be a higher world, much higher than ours
A writer of love songs way up in the sky
The maker of roses, of love sweet and true
And the waltz of the Angels he wrote just for you...
