Baby, baby, if it ever rains on you
Baby, I'm a talkin' about the blues for you
You get soaked to the skin
And your cheatin' heart would cry within, boo, boo, boo, who.

Baby, baby, if there ever comes a day
You wind up with a broken heart in a dark rainy day
It's only then you'll see just what you really done to me
You know when it rains the blues on you.

You would never a had the blues
And you're way overdue
You've been lucky so far
You got your lucky stars.

Baby, baby, if it ever rains on you
Baby, I'm a talkin' about the blues for you
You get soaked to the skin
And your cheatin' heart would cry within.

When it rains the blues the blues on you.

You would never a had the blues
And you're way overdue
You've been lucky so far
You got your lucky stars.

Baby, baby, if it ever rains on you
Baby, I'm a talkin' about the blues for you
You get soaked to the skin
And your cheatin' heart would cry within.

When it rains the blues the blues on you...
