Suffering pain deep inside
Left her arms her cold parade
Her cold soul is freezing me
I am falling down I am falling deep
All love is gone
She was she that liveth and was dead
She had the keys of hell and of death
Her cold fingers froze my soul
I fell and I watched me go
She burnt my skin with her fiery eyes
She broke my heart with her deceiving lies
All my love is gone with her list
Yesterday I gave her my last kiss
All love is gone
