They scorched the earth; they petrified the forest - painted windows Black. Pumped cyanide in rivers, roamed around in packs ; screamed "STAND, DELIVER!" they always took it all. Resistance cracked, we'd hide, but sure They'd find us curled up on the floorboards of our shack. Five on the Blacklist! Five on the blacklist! We were bubbling under, now we're in There, with a bullet (through the brain) Frightened on the floorboards of Our shack, quite naked, once we'd fight them - now we take it all. They Have our names, they have our numbers. the print-out says we take it all Again and again until we pay... Five on the blacklist!
Five on the Blacklist! We were bubbling under, now we're in there, with a bullet. FIVE
! Five on the blacklist! FOUR! Five on the blacklist!
THREE! Five on the Blacklist! TWO! Five on the blacklist! ONE ! Five on the blacklist!
