

Leighton Meester "The Stand In"

Visit "The Stand In" on MotoLyrics.com

i saw an angel night before last they come from kentucky, who'd have thought that? she had a smile, it was so genuinely kind sorta make you feel like you're sipping on some fine red wine

she rendered me speechless, welli»¿ she rendered me still

she had me feeling like the fool on the hill she said she's taken but i don't believe that she could be meant for anybody but me angels come from kentucky i guess sweet sweet girl you made my head a mess

you got me locked out here, dancing in the rain drunk with the thought of your smiling face i know you are an angel and it can not be

but what if it was you and what if it was me
and...what if 600 years ago, you were juliet and I was...
well youi»¿ know how that story goes....

so what if its a puzzle and you're the only piece the only jig to make my sawi»¿ complete what if i go stumbling for the rest of my days because i am a cripple and you were my cane oh no....

angels come from kentucky i guess
sweet sweet girl you made my head a mess
you got me locked out here, dancing in the rain
drunk with the thought of your smiling face
i know you are an angel and it can not be
but what if it was you and what if it was me
and...what if 600 years ago, you were juliet and I was...
well youi»¿ know how that story goes....

Visit Leighton Meester page on MotoLyrics.com, to get more lyrics and videos.