Call the Rob'n'Raz - you say

Do something nice today
That's what I say
It'll make you feel better
Not just OK
Put some energy in it
And you'll find out
That joy is given without no doubt

Life can be a crazy story
Pain, joy, trouble or glory
Take my advice and do something nice
Try to stay away from violence and lies

Last week I was on my way home
Suddenly I felt a feeling very strong
Somebody was following me
Who it was, at that time I could not see

Suddenly I heard someone say
"Hey what's up babe, what it feel like"
I said I'm feeling alright, what do you ask me for
"Cause I want your money, and I want something more"

Well well
Well well
Well well
Well well

So I said to the guy that wanted the money
"I do not think this is very funny"
"Just fuck out the wallet and keep your mouth shut
Just give me some cash, or I'll have to kick butt"

That's not the way to address a lady
Your manners are bad, and I think you've had a chance
To earn some money on your own
Scram, get out, and leave me alone

I know, you know, he knows, everybody knows
What comes and goes

Makes people know, just how to earn respect
(Yeah)
Love, and give to others

Never the less, some people can't realize
That it's better to do something nice
Give away flowers, listen to others
Realize that we're sisters and brothers

Yeah-yeah-yeah, try that sience babe

Well well
Well well
Well well
Well well

Running for jamming is with this crew
Manners are bad, I just want to prove
To you that I can do a groove
That fits like a shoe
(Ah-ah - fits like a glove)

So I missed the word
But I'll bet you a buck
Nobody really gives the (beep)
Stand up and groove
Enjoy this ocation
And prove by the Nordic beat foundation

Now there's prove that people behave
In a party, a club, a pup or a rave
Everywhere, this achrophere
Caused by the rhythm makes you stare
At me, and what do you see

A crazy lady, 1.63
(That's right)
Trying to tell you to do something nice
(Yeah-yeah-yeah)
Try to stay away from violence and lies
(I will)

Well well
Well well
Well well
Well well

Well well
Well well
Well well
Well well

Once again boys
C'mon

Well well
Well well
Well well
Well well
