all nights only lead to say alright, its not the way its gonna be my bad dreams tell me what i wanna hear and sometimes I just can't see you being there to break my fall
cuz i can't handle everything now i can't tell to say it all so many times I just don't care so many times waking up just in time to write you this song
said enough no use running with the sweet cross don't waste my time time will only tell me what it is I have to do to make it through Reapers size, stream and an outstace one way And im scared by the maybe we'll go for that ride Its too late I'll find out first hand when its like sometimes I just can't see you being there to break my fall
now I can't tell, you've said it all
So many times I just don't care
So many times waking up just in time to write you this song
said enough
no use learning breaking this cross dont waste my time
through (x2)
