This is our last goodbye

In our darkest hour I lay my hands down by your side.
The warmth of your skin gives my chills to what we'll leave behind. This is our last kiss, I will miss everything.
My hearts racing. Please wake me up from this nightmare.
Wake up from your sleep

If you go, know that I go too.
Cause if you die, I die too.
When you shake, I shake, shake, shake, shake, shake,
shake, shake for you.
Cause if you die, know I do too.

I whisper in your ear a valid from a broken man. I squeeze your hand tight as an ode to empty promises.
My heart bleeds, it kills me. Don't leave me by myself.
Torn apart, from the start. Forever I promise there'll be no one else.

If you go, know that I go too.
Cause if you die, I die too.
When you shake, I shake, shake, shake, shake, shake,
shake, shake for you.
Cause if you die, know that I do too.

Ooooooooooh, ooooooooooooooh
Ooooooooooooooh, ooooooooooooooh

If you go, know that I go too.
Cause if you die, I die too.
When you shake, I shake, shake, shake, shake, shake,
shake, shake for you.
Cause if you die, know that I do too.

If you go, know that I go too.
If you die, know that I die too.
