Is it really over?
Between us two
Then why don't you love me?
The way that I still love you

So many mistakes made
In so little time
Girl, I'm so regretful
I must have been out of my mind

I don't wanna live another day
Without you by my side
I don't wanna run anymore
(I don't, I don't)
Running out of places to hide

Ever since you went away
Slowly I've seen
That I shoulda got down on my knees
And begged you to stay with me

And what I'm feeling for you
Never could I try to hide
The fact that I adore you
Always seems to come outside

You were my heartbeat
The reason I breathe
Please baby, forgive me
While I'm down on my knees

I don't wanna live another day
Without you by my side
I don't wanna run anymore
(I don't, I don't)
Running out of places to hide

Ever since you went away
Slowly I've seen
That I shoulda got down on my knees
And begged you to stay with me
(Begged you to stay with me)

I don't wanna live another day
Without you by my side
I don't wanna run anymore
(I don't, I don't)
I'm running out of places to hide

Ever since you went away
Slowly I've seen
That I shoulda got down on my knees
And begged you to stay with me
(Stay with me)

I don't wanna live another day
(I don't, I don't)
Without you by my side
I don't wanna run anymore
I'm running out of places to hide

Ever since you went away
Slowly I've seen
That I shoulda got down on my knees
And begged you to stay with me

I shoulda got down on my knees
And begged you to stay with me

I don't wanna see
I don't wanna throw
I can't see the night
You're my heart and soul
