Took my mind back to the beginning of things
When I did I found myself questioning
Why did I find it so hard to settle down
Why did I find it so hard to figure out

All the pieces never fit
Not till you were part of it

I was born to, born to love you
In spite of myself
Don't know why, I guess I
I was born to, born to love you
Be bought together
Never leave (never, ever, ever)

She said romance is like wishing on a well (yeah)
You solve it all out but you might never see it again
Somehow I thought it was up to me
But my heart saw it all differently

Cos the pieces never fit (yeah)
Not till you're a part of it

Guess I was born to, born to love you
In spite of myself
Don't know why, I guess I
I was born to, born to love you (yeah)
Be bought together
Never leave (never, ever, ever)

Ever say goodbye
Ever see you cry
Ever let you fall
I'll never let you fall baby
I was born to,
Said I was born to...

Aaaahhh

I was born to, born to love you (ooo)
In spite of myself (spite of myself)

Don't know why, I guess I
I was born to, (born to love) born to love you
Be bought together (never)
Never leave (never, ever, ever)

Ever say goodbye (ever say goodbye)
Ever see you cry (I'll never see you cry)
Ever let you fall (never let you fall)
I'll never let you fall baby (ooo)
I was born to,
Said I was born to...
